

SNEAK PEEK: Can Angie Katsanevas and Monica Garcia Get Past Their Drama? | RHOSLC (S4 E9) | Bravo

Hi are you This place is so cute No it's a perfect place for a little girl Time Can I do a slice of your tiramisu cake I'm gonna get a strawberry banana smoothie and then I'll fold the healthy strawberry smoothie up with a strawberry piece of cake Thank you You're welcome I love pink This is right up my alley You could do a wall like this in your house You have content a content wall I know this is oh wow I brought a little gift for your Children that is and sort of for you too because it's a really sweet book It's just about loving yourself and like asking for help when you need it I think it's a great message to share with your kids and I felt terrible about the way you left Sad and that things were not good with you and your mom just all of us so well Thank you I appreciate that I love that It's a horse that's definitely some little Electra that's very kind Um I hate that it went so badly I know I do too for me telling you what was being said was my way of being a friend Ok Well I understand that MEREDITH was the one dropping the threats But then this is tell me that you are doubling down by saying well yeah even people are saying he's going to be and yet he is good and bad like in my bed but not in somebody else's bed Ok That hurt me And I thought why would she do that Why I didn't do that I did say something about boyfriends but I never said about his performance The rumor is Sean Men No he does not He has like boyfriends running around the city bragging about their sex Thank you I feel like whatever Lisa says to you is doctrine and you believe her over everyone I'm not going to attack your relationship with her But it is actually very damaging when she's telling you things that were said that were not said my intent was never to cause harm And that's where I want to end undone I just want to let you know why I still had some feelings and I'll be more aware of that moving forward Ok Thank you I feel good Monica We're sitting down we're not raising our voices and that's all I wanted to do on Easter Like when your daughters walked out of there I was devastated for the girls That was the most family thing my kids have done in years No honestly And to walk into that house and see everything you did with the kid table I really was so touched and I was so grateful that my kids were able to be around other kids in a family gathering setting because those are core memories that they don't get to have I'm sorry my gosh Michael was the one with a mom and a dad and brothers and sisters and they had a big family home and I didn't have that

Then when the affair happened obviously that changed everything I never knew this about you I had no idea No you have no idea Like my mom there's so much stuff that I don't talk about to like protect her My mom never came to holidays and things like that with us before But after the affair my mom started coming over to my house for every holiday and I'm at least grateful for that But I mean most of the time it would usually end in a fight and after every holiday I'd be like why do I invite her Well I think that's natural that like we love you know our family members sometimes even not at their best moments But you know one thing that I want to tell you because I want to be able to build trust with you My mom was an alcoholic She went through you know a lot of struggles and self medicated and so my childhood was not perfect Thank God My dad was solid I think that's kind of the only thing that really kept me um you know grounded I had a hard time growing up without a mother I lost her when I was eight years old and I never had the opportunity to have my mother a part of my life when I was becoming a young woman and really needed a role model and to see like this is the relationship that she has with her mother It saddens me because I didn't have a chance to love my mother I didn't know that about your mom by the way Yeah I mean I know we've never we've talked about our kids but we've probably never really like we've never discussed our moms our moms Yeah And you do not need to recreate what you hated I'm here for you and I appreciate that I really do And I'm sorry too for everything And I do think that there is a lot more to both of us that we need to give each other the space and chance to be able to to let that grow That means so much to me And like I mean that yeah that I'm glad we got together Me too I feel so much better It's like ok Shrek
