Craig I think you know nine seasons in it's so nice to see you so happy in a playing house you know doing all the things with Paige How different is this experience now that you have someone that is the one that's serious and you're you know you're not looking for uh love anymore I I think that's a great part of a show like ours is we do have almost a decade of film on a lot of us and and you get to watch the roller coaster of life and you know you get to see that mid twenties breakup that everyone has that you think it's the end of the world and then you get to see that you come out of that and you get to see people struggle with careers and you know have to move back home for a little bit and all of a sudden you find out that you really love pillows and so does everyone else And uh you know the the dark times were tough to film but it's fun that we have it now so we can share the light with everyone So it's great having a supportive partner And uh I I wish that for everyone I mean that midea trailer is pretty dramatic for the two of you I mean you're like ready to be a husband The dad What's what's the latest there She seemed to be not quite there yet I I just you know I'm a romantic at heart I love rom Coms Uh the problem was I didn't really have anything to base relationships off of other than Rom Coms So you don't just start dating and then get engaged and get married Um we you know we've only been dating for a little over two years and I think we took our foot off the gas We stopped letting outside pressure get to us and just be like you know what what works for us works for us Um you know not to be shady but we see a lot of relationships on Bravo not work out and we don't want to be like them Wait like like who's not on our show Sorry I just in general Yes I actually I wasn't talking about our show Um so we're just trying to do it our way And uh I think we know exactly who you were talking about and I just you know I hope to propose one day Uh she actually mentioned eloping here because of both of our families were at Bravo K Well I want to talk about the families So you know I think of her as the ultimate New Yorker Like have the families met Are they best friends at this point or What's that like Yeah they met at Bravo Con 2023 in Vegas I love that And isn't over yet I know we still got another night I know I know I I got nervous when she said that Which is funny So um but we're good and we'll see what happens and what's what's neat is we get to share it with here So Olivia I wanna come back to you It was very sad to watch you have to go through losing your brother on this show But I know it's putting all of the drama aside that we just went through I know your friend group that is all here did come and rally around you and support you and I know you felt the love So tell me a bit how um oh that was definitely one of the positives of this season is I got to explore new friendships and that's really where people stepped up for me regardless of what was going on And that's um that's what a true friendship is like regardless of the circumstance you show up for that person And I really felt that from some and um a very very appreciative and as well as the fans I've been overwhelmed with all the people that have reached out and and just shared their stories So thank you Thank you So much Yes Taylor how I know you've also gone through personal loss and unfortunately it's something that a lot of you can share How are you doing And then I promise I'm gonna come to the audience I know you have some burning questions but I don't wanna you know not not also acknowledge that Thank you Um Yeah I mean it's pretty surreal Um Olivia is one of the first people to knock on my door and sit in bed with me and cries So we've been able to kind of put things aside and um what's really real and going on in in our lives So everybody's been great Everybody stepped up just as as they did That's really really important That's what it's about Taylor I wanna come back to you because one moment this season that of course I think many of us reacted to was seeing Austin kind of you know open up to shop and say look this is what happened and you said it was kind of blindsiding for you because that wasn't part of the deal Well wasn't it wasn't I mean I I can I I'm sit here and laugh but I try to laugh everything off at this point But um no I mean I I really wish that we had I wanted to come out with the truth from the very get go and it wasn't that wasn't the case And he's saying they're going I'm feeling liberated I was like well I'm glad you feel liberated because I feel like a piece of poop So anyways but um hopefully you know everything just comes out in the wash you in there Austin and I see you I mean I I you know once again when I was supposed to be getting into this but I would love to I mean you had a decision earlier in the night I I can't tell you what to do I wasn't there I didn't have a gun to your head I mean my friend came to me There's no there's no booing What was I supposed to do Chef's face was I supposed to lie to Was I supposed to lie to him again It would have eventually come out regardless So I was supposed to lie to him go and talk to Taylor and then come back That's what you told Taylor to do You know what it was eventually going to come out in the end regardless no matter what I know No no I did not Taylor You and I did not you know I didn't sit there and say do not say anything like we both were like let's just like let this thing you know go away That is what we said Ladies ladies I cannot wait so bad I cannot wait I mean one thing is the reunion is so much to clear up something to watch for sure So let's talk about who's single and who's not because we are in Sin City It is Vegas We've been here for three or four days at this point Who's single Raise your hand I'm single Very single Living my best life I think we all every day and all day baby I think we're all single But um the only person that we never really know about is Maddie It's so it's a little complicated with her but it's true Yeah Hey complicated is good Um Leva what is your reaction to seeing that trailer Because like I said you and I got to see it together and we were like this is literally insane Um It was I can't you know I try to stay out of their stuff Um Somehow it ends up in like a text or ad M or I catch a piece of camera footage because I have 17 million You can see the moment of you with that Like not the security footage Yeah Um But there was a lot I didn't know So obviously I was watching it almost like you guys were and I was like oh Lord could you all get it together But no you know it's it's it's good They're young It's OK It's ok guys I feel like I'm always in trouble I always say as long as they keep it outside of Republic I don't care but they don't always do that Who would you say Leva brings the most drama in season two because like I said it's Van Der PBA level Insanity is what I've been saying I don't know these little they just they have this chemistry where it's so chaotic I mean I feel like Maddie doesn't mean to but it comes to her Sorry Maddie That's true too Yeah I would agree I would say like me and Maddie are both managers but somehow even when we don't try to start any of it it always just comes right to us Yeah we get looped into it We try to like deescalated and be Switzerland But sometimes when you're Switzerland too much it can bite you in the ass
