

Here's How Brian Benni Elevated His Game After "Moment" With Jordan Emanuel | BravoCon 2023 | Bravo

Any red flags deal breakers you meet somebody and you're like oh no this will never work Yeah I think a weird like turn off for me is like if I bring a girl to my family and like my my mom and my family are just like nah like that's it's hard for me Like that's fair And for the rest of you does your family have much input in your dating life at all Not mine They hate every boyfriend of mine because they're all losers like whatever you know being Indian and cultural My mom's always involved with you know everything So when she's hold on someone it all works out you know it makes it a lot easier that's for sure Ok we're gonna go to audience questions Who do we have out there Hey Kate So what's your name where you're from And your question Hi I'm Anna Lee and I'm from Fort Worth Texas and I just wanna say you all look great But Gigi you look amazing Thank you Thank you And you're such a boss and I just want to know Thank you I appreciate you saying that Like well I want to tell you first of all like you having a baby on your own and like that journey is just so inspiring Thank you How is WSA Doing Woo Saw I mean I'm I'm really happy Woo Saw is my cannabis brand And um we're at a very big level now It's it's expanding it's just it's doing great I've been working so hard I was one of the first people in Bravo you know to come out with a cannabis brown not everybody and the baby mama has one What I mean Um It's great though My sex toy line company is great I'm just working hard and I'm recently I started flipping motels You guys with Reza we're doing very shit's creek style ghost Towns Look out for something soon Awesome That's a show I would watch 100% Yeah Thank you Thank you We have a very special question Next Brian My question for you Who are you Look at him look at him You're not ready Who's that Who is that Hi guys I'm Jordan from Winter House with Brian We also have Casey and Corey in the crowd But anyway um so what did you learn after our hallway moment Um How did you elevate your game after that Great question random person Um What I what I learned from that is you know sometimes less is more so maybe don't come in too hot But as I digress I think it worked because towards the end I think we had some great moments sir True thanks Thank you for your question Jordan So good to see you You look amazing Hi What's your name And where are you from My name is Omar and I'm from San Francisco And my question is for Daisy I love you How did it feel

to see Colin here at Bravo Con And now you're dating someone new Um I have had a lot of anxiety It's been a long year but um I was really nervous and I knew we would be cordial like we had a lot of love at one stage But you know it's not easy and to be in this environment most people get to put their exes in a box and throw it in a river river So no it was it was very nervous but we hugged we had a chat today We've been Yeah No we have a lot of love for each other and I'm sure at some stage we'll get back to a better place and this was a good start So thank you Prava Khan for doing that and you look amazing Thank you I appreciate that I love you I want a selfie with you please Absolutely I'll be over there in five minutes right there Sounds great Hi What's your name And your question Hi My name is Alex I'm from Cleveland and I'm Grace Lilly's number one fan and I have an easy question for you How does it feel to be Bravo's next big star Because you are the next Lisa Barlow Stasi Schroder You are it Who do you feel That's so sweet Thank you so much I'm thoroughly enjoying this experience and I've always felt like this was meant for me You know it you're a star You knew it the moment I was born but everyone's everyone's a star You just have to believe in it OK I absolutely love you Um My question is for Daisy how do you mentor people Like you're obviously like an Og of uh the Sailing Knot How do you mentor new people coming in Like realizing there's cameras like you're also working like what's your advice to those uh like the crew members Yeah I think um I try to give the same advice that the production company gave me when I came in and it was just to be yourself And I didn't trust that at the beginning I was like no you you are all liars You're trying to me over But uh I leant into that and that's definitely what I say to everyone and I see how anxious the new cast members are and I really try to encourage them being like no one here is trying to do you dirty Like if you if you come out looking like you did that to yourself and um yeah just try to be a good positive person and look out for each other and you know the rest will fall into place Love you We have time for one more question Hi how are you Hello My name is Jay I'm from Scottsdale Arizona Hi Daisy Um so my question would be uh for the single gals to Daisy also Grace and Gigi may I ask something that's hypothetical Speaking with your permission Yeah I'm ok with that So if a single gentleman who would be interested in either of you if you were to say that he were someone high functioning autism would you consider even the thought of dating a gentleman like that I would and I would prefer to um I've been my whole life people have you know said you're probably autistic on the spectrum Something's wrong with you wrong with you And I'm just like but but my I'm a straight a student in 4.2 GPA scores I'm this and I'm not two So I'm very ok with whatever the labels are as long as it's a good person and a caring person I don't care Autism No autism Thank you Thank you for being honest Thank you Yeah I I think Gigi said it Exactly right I completely I've learned kindness is my future So if you're a kind person then I am completely open to it no matter what label or and what kind of person you are So absolutely I am all for it Thank you I also agree with I love humans I just love life You know I love everyone So yeah there's no reason to judge anyone Let's not judge let's just love Thank you for that question And that was such a lovely happy high note I think we're gonna call it a night right there You two Stay out of trouble tonight We'll keep you posted Oh I'm going to ask for details Thank you guys so much I hope you had a great time at Bravo Con 2023 Thank you guys They're so great December 7th Please Tune in I love you guys It's baby gl vibes sending out peace come to Republic
