you might disagree with something she said you take it behind the scenes you tell her to her face or do you just not say anything at all Really Honestly it's always she's telling me what not to say what I did but she's pretty pretty good But if it really does happen and I tell her after I said why did you do that But but really never she's pretty on point Bill How do you handle it You know it seven days a week I played a political game right I treat patients where I gotta listen to complaints So you learn to balance your spouse and she's got a great voice She's got a good instinct So you know I usually let it play out Balance Balance is key balance is key F what about you I mean this is your first season Did you have to kind of tell her off camera I didn't like how you handled it What was going on a couple of times I tell her off camera Listen you can handle it this way or do it that way Yeah All right You're handling it appropriately but mostly she handles you is what you're saying Yes we know how it works Thanks for a happy marriage happy wife happy life All right we're going to play a quick get to know you session with Would you rather Ok So I want you guys to answer this Would you rather do your wife's hair or make up Oh John Fuda Um They both are terrible I guess Make up Frank it I'd rather do her hair Much easier much easier much easier Bill Joe neither I'm not talented in that Yeah You know what you're good at you know what You're good at Joe How about can I do her bikini line But I do always with that Would you guys rather have a night A guy's night in Bill's pool house or Joe Gorgas house Gorgas house any time Frank That's a hard one That's the only question I can answer today They're both they're both pretty fun but in their own unique way Like what's Bill's Pool House providing that Gorgas not providing you're going to see this He's got a lot of porn in there It was good We had a good time filming that Bill Hes at pool house all the time Yeah Yeah that's it You know But we filmed at Gorge's house as well And let me tell you there's pros and cons for each there's this one is directly related Actually all of you can relate Would you rather cry on camera or show your butt on camera What did you do Frank I show both I show both He'll show it I've cried on camera I've also showed my butt on camera So either way yeah you don't discriminate No not at all this year I showed my butt So you know I guess show my butt I got his butt out on camera I'll cry I'll cry I'll take the cry Yeah you'll take the crying Bill You're more reserved Would you rather go on a fishing expedition or a golf tournament fishing exposition That's where Tony the Turk comes out I want to meet Tony That's when he was inaugurated into a New Jersey Guido Tony the Turks That's his uh if you saw the episode there Yeah he got quite drunk while we were deep sea fishing Would you go would you rather go on tour together or take a cash trip Same thing isn't it You mean just guys guys Of course Absolutely Just wherever the wives are not that's where you want to be Put me in a Mexican prison I'm in there and I've been yelled at all week and don't do that Don't do it What are you doing I'm my God Why did you say that
