embarrassed I was like I'm sure you thought it was an Amazon package like Amazon again Hi ladies I'm Clo from Atlanta Georgia Atlanta Uh My question is actually for Summer House Martha's Vineyard Once y'all saw that Amir actually put the dog stuff with the with the towels How did y'all feel about that Do y'all regret how that situation went down with Mariah This is a great question I'm so glad you asked Um I was a little bit upset about that Um just because it was very serious and it could have got to the next level Um so when we found out he actually found out after it aired to be honest and uh it was it he was that long until we found out Go ahead So here's the thing for me he literally came you guys know Amir He's shucks He literally came in the kitchen I don't know if you were there but he literally was like or you know causing a fight by putting the wrong laundry in He said it as a joke so much and so quickly that we were like huh that we didn't know that he was serious Had we I would have had to have a conversation with him elsewhere So yeah it was correct that it had to end that way But um yeah he apologized for it and Mariah and I we've talked it out and that information was crucial though It was it was great question Great question Hey I'm Kyron I'm from Atlanta and this is for all of the winter house people How long does it take to clean that house Because it gives me like so much anxiety Like when y'all are about to leave and you don't it is a daily battle It doesn't the way we left that house on the last day Honestly like it was a really low point in my life Let's just say that And would you believe me if I said that was one of the cleanest houses we've ever stayed in Honestly you guys are feral I wore shoes all the Yeah it was it's a safety hazard It's health and safety hazard I think that most people think that either we get glam or someone cleans the house No no it's all on us We had to fight production for a mop You mopped I would not mop We do a pretty good job We do a good job I mean the worst thing in our house is like dishes we do Me and you and other people could go II I was too busy having fun in that house Like we just didn't eat proper meals and we just snacked the whole time until people would order take out because we wouldn't cook That's the premise of Summer House and Warehouse come Party and don't eat proper meal Yeah And does cook This sounds really fun and I can't wait to go and I will not be mopping when I visit No but thank you so much ladies This was a very fun panel So you know thank you for dancing and you guys can watch all these Bravo TV dot com and Bravo Social and on PC right here from the bravo verse live stage all weekend Thanks guys Yes
